Condolence Message

It is with deep sorrow that we have learned the heartbreaking news that the revered Lama Ole, who carried out incomparable activities of preserving, upholding, and spreading the precious Buddhist teachings throughout the world, has passed away from his physical form. Upon hearing this news, all the teachers and students of Diwakar Buddhist Academy have felt immeasurable sadness.

He was a noble being who lit the lamp of the sacred Dharma in many parts of the world and guided countless beings onto the path of Buddhism. Therefore, his passing is a tremendous loss not only for the Buddhist teachings in general, but especially for all the disciples fortunate enough to receive and experience his profound Dharma teachings.

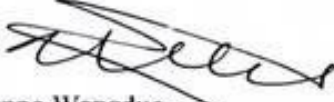

Offer Condolences

All the teachers and students of Diwakar Buddhist Academy extend our deepest condolences and heartfelt sympathy to his family members, relatives, and all the disciples and Dharma communities connected with him. We sincerely share in your grief and sorrow from the depths of our hearts.

Prayer Dedication

We pray that all the Lama Ole's aspirations may be completely fulfilled that there may be no obstacles on the stages and paths and that he may swiftly attain perfect enlightenment. For this purpose, all the teachers and students of this Academy will offer extensive prayers during the forty-nine-day period, making numerous supplications and dedications.

With prayers

Khenpo Wangdue

Principal of Diwakar Buddhist Academy
